BON BINI FESTIVAL

Located in the town of Oranjestad, The Bon bini Festival takes place every Tuesday evening, rain or shine, doors open 6:30 pm and the show is from 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm. Check out local food, drink, music, dancing, arts, and crafts. "Bon bini" means "welcome" in Papiamento, and that's the perfect word to describe the enthusiastic environment of this festival. The Bon bini festival showcases some of Aruba's most amazing artists. Steel drum musicians and dancers exude talent, and local artists and craftsmen show off their very best wares. Admission to this event is $5 (USD); food and drink costs are separate, so make sure to budget for that, as well as for any purchases you may make!

Right out of Club Arias B&B. Go straight passed the airport. Keeping going straight through round-about. Right across from the movie theater in Oranjestad.

- Go straight and you will go through another round-about (head straight); start to find parking and walk the rest of the way (you will hear the music and see the festival)

BUTTERFLY FARM

The Butterfly Farm is located at Palm Beach across from the Aruba Phoenix and Aruba Resort Hotels (High Rise Area). There is an entrance fee which varies from season to season.

BUBALI BIRD SANCTUARY

Located within walking distance of the Palm Beach resorts, the Bubali Bird Sanctuary offers some unique bird watching opportunities. You can't miss; it as it is located just in front of the historical Old Dutch Windmill. Make sure to bring your camera as many of these birds will randomly fly by the observation tower giving a little show. This is a great place to bring kids for a unique and possibly once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be so close to the untamed.
